Skull Sessions Planned

The OU College Bowl team will be holding practice sessions during semester break. Team captain Wesley Webster said the team plans to challenge intra-mural teams and work out under the studio lights at KYNE-TV. Dr. Donald Manson and the team composed of Webster, Gary Johnson, Marcia Cohen and Craig Reisser have been gathering information on probable questions.

Spring Registration To Fall; New Procedure Adds Pep?

"We expect the normal drop in spring enrollment as compared to last semester," stated OU registrar, Virgil Sharpe.

"This drop occurs for a number of various reasons. Students either realize that their grades are too low to continue or their money runs out."

The fall enrollment of 1966 was about 600 less -than had been anticipated and due to this fall drop, the spring registration figures remain in doubt.

Students will register according to the number of academic hours earned, including the fall semester 1966.

Students are advised that if they have not received their grade report bearing the official number of hours, they are to compute the number of hours by adding their estimate of the number of hours in the fall semester to the number of hours

The official schedule for registration is as follows:

Jan. 23 — Monday is the day guidance examinations for first semester freshmen, who have not previously taken_examinations, will be given. All transfer students, who have not previously taken exams, are required to take guidance examinations.

Jan. 30 - Monday 7:30 to 10 a.m. day undergraduate and graduate students who have officially earned 106 or more credit hours and were enrolled

Those enrolling in evening classes ONLY, who have not previously registered by mail. are to register during the assigned time as determined by the first letter of the last name as follows:

OU, NU To Merge On January 1, 1968?

Madsen To Speak At Commencement

The University of Omaha C. C. Madsen, president of Dana will award 409 degrees at the Mid-Year Commencement Saturday, January 28.

This number is 143 less than last January's graduating class.

Virgil Sharpe, registrar, attributed the drop in graduates to a decrease in bootstrapper enrollment and the draft. Many students who are eligible to graduate are waiting until June to delay the draft, says Sharpe.

Acting President Kirk Naylor will confer the degrees during the 10 a.m. ceremonies in the OU Fieldhouse.

Commencement speaker is Dr.

The OU cagers proved Saturday, that they are the team to reckon with in the Central Intercollegiate Conference this season. The Indians made Pittsburg State their third straight CIC victim by a 65-51 decision. (See Sports Page for further details.)

The Indians have two more road trips before again playing on the home court. The first encounter will be with Rockhurst at Kansas City on January 28. The Indians defeated Rockhurst 60-59 earlier in the season.

4, the Indians On February will tangle with St. Benedict's in Atchison, Kansas. The game will be the first of two meetings between the schools during the remainder of the season.

Then the Indians will return to-the-Fieldhouse to face Pittsburg on February 7. The cagers will be out for their forthstraight CIC victory and to prove to the home fans that their first victory over the Gorillas was not a fluke.

College in-Blair, Nebraska.

Dr. Madsen is a man of many

He is a 1930 graduate of Dana College and Trinity Seminary and holds the Doctor of Theology degree from Central Seminary in Kansas.

He began his career as a parish minister in 1934 in Kansas City. He served as a Chaplain with the Marine Corps in the Pacific during the war and today holds the rank of Captain in the Chaplain Reserve Corps.

In 1956, he was inaugurated as President of Dana College.

An additional title was added to those of Pastor, Doctor, Captain and President in 1961 when King Frederick the Ninth of Denmark bestowed the Cross of the Knight Order of Dannebrog upon Dr. Madsen.

Since he assumed the office of President, the Dana campus has been greatly enlarged, enrollment has more than doubled and plans have been made for continued expansion.

Dean Don Pflasterer said that there would be no baccalaureate services held. Graduates are to attend the church of their choice the Sunday before graduation if they so desire.

In order to save time, as in the past, only the candidates for masters degrees will be presented individually. The remainder of the class will be presented their degrees as a group.

Joint - Regents Agree At Meet

By John Weber

The merger of Omaha U and Nebraska U may be a reality within one year.

Acting President Kirk Naylor told The Gateway that if the necessary legislation is enacted, the merger would "tentatively" take place on January 1, 1968.

The first step toward such a move was taken Monday night. The regents for both OU and NU issued a joint statement saying they have "agreed in principle on the merger of the two universities"

President Naylor said that earlier in the day, the OU regents and school officials met with nine of the 14 state senators from Omaha.

The meeting resulted in "the basic decision to establish fiscal responsibility by getting state support" for OU, said Naylor.

The decision (to seek state aid) was based on talks with state senators, the Governor and his assistants, Chamber of Commerce officials, (Omaha) city government personnel, deans, administrative staff and alumni," commented Naylor.

"We are taking the most defensive position. We believe the greatest good for faculty, staff and student body will be under a merger," he added.

He continued by telling The Gateway, "The primary purpose of the University is to provide quality education at a reasonable cost. The regents and Administration are following a concept of coordination and cooperation, not competition.

"I feel that the highest degree of coordination must be established between and among the institutions of higher learning in Nebraska. ne concluded.

The President is not neglecting the students. "We hope those that are served (the students) mill be served better in this manner (by a merger)," Naylor said.

Also Naylor reasons that the tuition OU students would pay under the new arrangement would equal NU students. This would call for a reduction of about $7 per credit hour under (Continued on Page 2)

The Association Is Coming!

First come finals . . , and then along comes . . . The Associa-

The Association's rescheduled concert will be held in the Civic Auditorium Music Hall on Thursday, Feb. 9 at 8 p.m.

The concert will be exclusively for OU students, says Fred Ray, director of student activities. Passes will be distributed beginning Tuesday, Feb. 7 at 10 a.m. at a special table in the Student Center Ballroom.

The free tickets may be obtained by presentation of an activity card for each ticket. The table will distribute passes from 10 a.m. till 3 p.m. from Feb. 7 through Feb. 9, the day of the concert.

Since the Music Hall seats only 2,600, Ray expects a full house. However, if any tickets remain on the day of the concert they may be purchased for guests at $1.50 each. Otherwise non-students will be unable to attend.

The Association made it big with their first song "Cherish," an immediate top seller.

The Student Council had lined up the popular group for the Homecoming Dance when the group broke their OU contract to appear on the "Andy Williams Show."

Both the popularity and the concert fee of the Association have grown since November. However, the musical group consented to come to Omaha and perform for OU students at the original price, says Ray.

Editorially Speaking

The regents of both Omaha U and Nebraska U have agreed "in principle on the merger of the two universities."

All that remains is to work out the details of the merger, get a bill drafted and get it passed in the Nebraska Unicameral.

Acting President Kirk Naylor is confident that the first two steps can be completed before the January 30 deadline. The Gateway shares his confidence that some sort of OU-NU merger bill will be introduced this session.

However, as a student newspaper, The Gateway must ask how will the student body's interests be both protected and explained to the state senators introducing the legislation?

President Naylor has already indicated three possible ways that OU students would benefit fro ma merger with NU: (1) reduced tuition, (2) resident dormitories and (3) "undreamed of future programs that we couldn't imagine under the present situa-

How strongly will the OU regents and Administration fight for such measures and possibly others? Who in the Unicameral will voice a stand favoring the NU-OU merger?

Dr. Naylor says, "After the bill is introduced, there would be ample opportunities for everyone concerned" to voice his opinion.

Since the Gateway is concerned, the new Spring staff (listed above he masthead) will explore this interesting and vital situation next semester.

Letters To The Editor

Wilson Gets Reply

In reply to Clarence William Wilson's letter in the January 13th Gateway criticizing Jim Butler and the Student Council: What would you like the council to do, Clarence, advocate impeaching Robert Spire; hang him in effigy; picket the Ad. building; burn their activity card; or boycott the OUampi Room.

Admittedly, the council cannot do anything about the firing of former OU president, Dr. Leland Traywick. Dr. Stanley Trickett with an emotional " . . . we love you, Bob. Change your minds!" could not do anything. Even stalwart Leroy Dyer and his magicmarker signs could not do anything.

I was disappointed when the council - with the advice of Dean of Students, Donald P. Pflasterer - decided against the "airing" of the conflict with Regent's president Robert Spire.

Spire failed to tell the truth at the outset of the dismissal and I am not convinced he is telling the whole truth now.

The Gateway reported on December 16 that "everal hundred" students attended a rally asking why Traywick was dismissed. These are the students who would attend an "airing" and these are the people who would ask the questions.

Lest you forget the position of the council: It is a volunteer student organization that works for no pay or credit to feel the pulse of the student body and plan activities accordingly. It operates completely at the convenience, pleasure and disposal of the administration.

Clarence, if you don't like the voice the council is making for 1: why don't you quit writing letters, run for election and the university what an intelligent out-spoken Independent council

OU - NU Merger Proposed

"The financial experts would have to determine the timing" of such a tuition decrease. "I have a personal feeling that it could be immediate" after the merger takes place, Naylor believes.

"I would expect in the not too distant future that the University will have resident dormitories." he said.

Previously the faculty had been asked if a NU-OU merger would be acceptable. Naylor said the response was "practically unanimous."

The faculty agreed in principle to a merger with the following safeguards:

(1) That educational programs on the Omaha campus be directed by a "resident chief administrative officer, in whose appointment the Omaha faculty would have a voice.'

(2) That the college and departmental structure of the faculty members retain the rank, tenure and other benefits they currently hold.

(3) That OU "existing at the time of such a merger be retained and that the faculty be given an important voice in future changes."

(4) That the faculty of the Omaha campus "be accorded all rights and privileges which pertain to the Lincoln faculty."

However the regents and attorneys and university officials have only a short time left in which to act. January 30, 1967 is the last day a bill can be submitted to the Legislature this session, Naylor stresses.

Naylor appears optimistic that the deadline will be met.

Grappiers Pin Pi Kaps

By Rudy Smith

A lively crowd was on hand for the intramural wrestling finals Saturday. Intramural Director Bert Kurth described them as the "best we have ever had."

In the heavyweight division Ken Pelan, Grapplers, an agile and skillful performer pinned muscular Fernando Mesa, Pi Kaps, in one of the best and most loudly applauded matches of the evening.

Belitz Dethrones Shepard Bud Belitz, Grapplers, last year's 177-pound title holder moved up a weight class to 191 and dethroned last year's champ Willard Shepard, Kappa, by a 3-1 margin.

In the 123-pound division, Grappler Jim Hoffman edged fellow Grappler Keith Wilmont 3-1 in the finals.

Pi Kaper Tom Helligso merely out-wrestled the quicker Tony Banola, Grapplers, for the 130pound title. The score was 3-2.

Richard Lee, Kappa, finally caught Bud Hanneman, Pi Kaps, and wasted no time enroute to a quick pin with 4:53 remaining.

Furby . . . Determined

A three-to-one decision enabled Rich Galas, Grapplers, to become ruler of the 152-pound class. He defeated John Burns, Grapplers.

Determined Dennis Furby, Grapplers, failed to be outdone by the quicker Pi Kapper, Dave Stennett as he posted a close 2-1 victory in the 160-pound

U Cages Gorillas

Dennis Browne again led the Indians in scoring and re- 16 points per game the past 11 bounding as the Indians blasted Pittsburg State 65-51.

The victory hiked the Indian record to 9-2. Last year OU managed only eight wins for the entire season.

After forging a 25-25 tie at intermission, the Indians erupted for 40 second-half points.

The Gorillas came out shooting the second half and jumped to a six-point advantage. The Indians forged three ties before going ahead to stay.

With 10:49 remaining, Len Todd stole the ball from the Gorillas and scored. Thirty-seconds later Todd dropped two charity shots to break open the game.

Pittsburg was forced into a desperation plan when the Indians got hot. Foul trouble, however, stopped the Gorillas from even getting close.

Dave Niegsch, All-CIC last year and the big gun of the Gorilla attack was held to nine points by Dennis Browne.

Niegsch had been averaging games. Browne held him scoreless the first half and limited Niegsch to only nine second-half

It is interesting to note that OU dropped only one more basket from the field than did-Pittsburg State.

Free throws gave the Indians their widest victory margin of the season. The OU cagers netted 27 of 42 attempts from the charity line.

Pittsburg lost three players via the foul route while gaining 25 fouls. OU was charged with 16 fouls.

Browne led the Indians in dropping 21 points and grabbing 16 of the Indians 41 rebounds.

The Indians shot at a very respectable 57 per cent while the Gorillas could manage a miserable 24 per cent.

All students interested in participating in varsity track should contact Coach Lloyd Cardwell, in the OU Fieldhouse. The first meet will be Feb. 10.

Indian newcomer Rich Coleman won his second straight match of the season at 145 pounds by waxing John Kreamelmeyer 15-6. Rich has accumulated an amazing 28 points in his two matches.

OU OUTWRESTLES NU

The Omaha U wrestlers proved strong in the middle weight classes and squeaked past the University of Nebraska 15-14 in Lincoln last Friday.

Tom Ruffino, sophomore, easily decisioned Curt Jensen 8-2 at 137 pounds. A late-reporting sub from Council Bluffs, Rich Coleman, whipped NU hopeful Dennis Dobson 13-4 at 145

Undefeated Roy Washington, Indian 152-pounder, found Duane Dobson a challenge but won 6-4. Reggie Williams, 160 pounds, romped over Husker Harry Provondra 9-1. Freshman standout Wendell Hakanson provided the victory margin for the Indians in shutting out Har-

OU 123 pounder Curlee Alexander dropped his second match of the year in a heartbreaking 2-1 loss to Rod Thon. Highly touted Jerry Langdon of NU had a tough go in defeating Kinze Williams 4-2 at 130 pounds. Pre-match favorite Ben Barrends of NU pinned Nick Modrcin at 177 pounds. Maides, OU heavyweight, dropped a 6-1 decision to Gene Libal.

Composer wants to know the score on '67 compacts

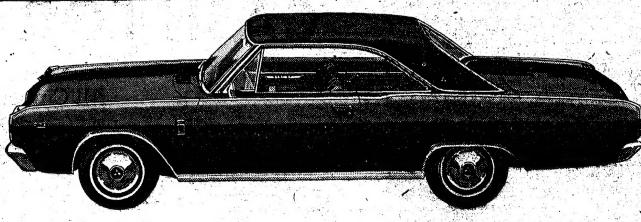

DEAR REB:

I'm a well-known composer, and I need a new car. The trouble is, I'm just too Bizet to pick one out. And what's more, many of the new cars I see are Offenbach in the garage for repairs. But I do have a good friend who is pleased with his new '67 Dodge Dart. He was given an excellent deal and Berlioz any money on it. My Bach is to the wall. Can you help me?

DEAR LUDWIG:

My advice is that you let yourself Ravel in the enjoyment of driving the sporty, all-new Dart for '67. You'll find its Liszt price is a lot lower than you'd expect. And even though it's longer outside and bigger inside this year, Dart's still an easy car to Handel. Sincerely, Reb

Here's the swinging, man-sized compact for '67 that's got three B's of its own: Bold, Brassy and Beautiful. Dart has been completely restyled this year, inside and out. It's longer, roomier, more powerful. But still at that snug compact price. Drop in at your nearest Dodge Dealer's and try it out for yourself.

The number of students making this trip is slightly lower than it was last year. The malefemale ratio seems to be good, though. The total number of 61 students breaks down to 31 boys and 30 girls.
